Recap: Oil prices retreated from their highest level in 7-weeks, pressured by rising production by the U.S. and OPEC and by renewed concern that the global trade war between China and the U.S. would hamper demand for oil. October WTI finished the week at $69.80 a barrel, down 45 cents, or 0.64%, or a weekly gain of 1.5%. October Brent settled at $77.42 a barrel, down 35 cents, or 0.45%, up 2% on the week.
